

Read All About It

Literacy

Mrs. Mitchell

rmitchell@cpsed.net

Literacy Website

www.mitchellteachers.net

Cranston East
899 Park Avenue
270-8126

CHSE Mission Statement

The mission of CHSE, a partnership consisting of students, teachers, parents, and community members, is to educate all students in a safe, challenging, and mutually respectful environment, which will enable them to develop and demonstrate proficiency in critical thinking problem solving, and communication skills. The CHSE student and subsequent graduate will utilize these skills to become a respectful and productive contributor to both the school and community.

Supplies Needed

3 prong folder
Highlighter
Post-Its
Loose-leaf

Pen
Attendance
Participation
Book of your choice

READ TO ACHIEVE

A DAY IN THE COURSE

- Independent reading
- Read-aloud
- Small group instruction
- Individual instruction
- Writing
- Journals/book logs
- Exploring words
- Fluency building
- Comprehension strategies
- Vocabulary
- Book talks
- READ 180/Scholastic
- Reading Advantage/Great Source
- Books, books, and more books!!!

Classroom Rules

- Show up for class on time!
- No eating or drinking in class!
- No texting in class. Cell phones should be put away. If I see them, I will hold them until 2:00.
- ipods/mp3 players, etc. should be put away. If I see them I will hold them until 2:00.
- Be respectful- of others and of me.
- TRY!! This class is based on effort and participation, so do both!

RHODE ISLAND READING STANDARDS

Grade Span Expectations

- Reading Fluency and Accuracy
 - Vocabulary/strategies
- Literary Texts/understanding, analysis and interpretation/generating personal response
- Informational Texts/understanding analysis and interpretation
- Reading Strategies/monitoring and comprehension
 - Breadth of Reading/reading widely/reading for research/participating in a literate community

FALL 2009