

Questioning the Author

What is the author trying to tell you?

Why is the author telling you that?

Is it said clearly?

How might the author have written it more clearly?

What would you have wanted to instead?

What is the author trying to tell you?

Why is the author telling you that?

Is it said clearly?

How might the author have written it more clearly?

What would you have wanted to instead?