

Check the Phone Book!!

With a partner and the yellow pages, locate a local business that would satisfy the following needs:

- Your mother needs special medicine and it is 2:00 a.m. Where can you get it?
- You'd like to buy a motorcycle. What shop do you go to? Why? What makes of motorcycles do they sell?
- Your family wants to go out to dinner. Choose a restaurant. Write its name, location, serving hours, and specialties.
- Where can you buy a bicycle built for two? Locate two places.
- You would like to have food delivered to your home for dinner. Where would you call? What will you have? (Be specific!)
- You've sprained your ankles and must use crutches for several days. Where could you call to rent crutches? List two places, their locations, and their phone #'s.
- Where could you buy a heavy equipment inner tube to take on vacation with you to the lake?
- You are trying to locate a rare book. What is the phone # of the closet library? In case that library doesn't have the book, what is one of the branch library's #'s?
- Where can you apply for a job delivering newspapers? What number would you call? What is the name of the business? What is their address?
- You went to the local beach with your family. The car keys were accidentally locked in the trunk of your car. How do you get help? What kind of help?
- Your dog needs a hair cut and to be groomed. Where can you take him/her? What is the telephone number of the business? What is the address? Should you make an appointment?
- Where can you take karate lessons? Which location is closest to your house? What is the name of the place? What is the phone #? What is the address?
- You want to have a cookout but it might rain. Where can you get a local weather report? What is the number? Is there an address given? Does the place have a specific name?
- What is the U.S Coast Guard's phone number?
